

Housing for Deaf Senior Citizens in Texas

Deaf Action Center Affordable Housing (Independent)

3115 Crestview, Dallas, Texas 75235

214-521-0407 V or 214-377-1898 VP

Email: info.assist@dactexas.org

<http://dactexas.org/project/affordable-housing/>

Owned and operated by Deaf Action Center, the Elizabeth M. Criswell Apartments features multiple on-site services to bring individuals and families with Deaf or hard of hearing members an exceptional, safe, and supportive environment. The community is located between Cedar Springs and Lemmon Avenue, letting residents enjoy uptown living at a fraction of the cost. The Dallas Housing Authority, with funds provided by the Housing and Urban Development (HUD), supports 30 of our apartment units. Section 8 vouchers accepted.

Heritage Square Assisted Living for the Deaf, Deafblind and Hard of Hearing

500 South Beach Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76105

817-534-0013

Email: carl@wgh-heritage.com

<http://heritagesquaretx.com/>

This is the first and only retirement home in Texas providing quality assisted living services where there is freedom of communication through American Sign Language (ASL). Heritage Square Assisted Living caters to any individual who wants to stay independent, yet needs some help to keep their independence. So if you are seeking to maintain your independence with some assistance, Heritage Square Assisted Living is the place for you to move to your own one or two bedroom apartment and experience a life of full communication through the use of American Sign Language.

La Vista A Full Service Independent Living Community

1615 Redwood Road
San Marcos, Texas 78666
(512) 396-2333 Voice
(512) 396-9923 TTY
(512) 396-2623 Fax

<http://www.lavistaonline.com/>

No Nursing Home for Deaf Senior Citizens in the State of Texas